Conference Proceedings

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

After a worshipful organ prelude by Mrs. Chas. Funkhouser, Bishop A. R. Clippinger declared the one hundred and twenty-ninth session of Miami Annual Conference assembled at 9:30 A.M., September 13, 1938, in the Euclid Avenue United Brethren Church.

Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing, "Holy, Holy, Holy". Rev. L. M. Hohn led in prayer of invocation. The Miami Conference Quartette: Reverends Dennis, Bevis, Gregory and Underwood, sang "Hallelujah, What a Saviour". Rev. R. D. Miller led in reading Psalm 136.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke as a communion meditation, on "Hunger and Thirst." "Hunger and thirst are realities of both the physical and the spiritual life. A good appetite is a great blessing. When there is a good appetite there is joy and blessing in food and drink. God wonderfully and bountifully provides food for our hunger and water for our thirst. Hunger for righteousness and hunger for God are blessed hungers that are provided for in Jesus Christ. The Communion is a spiritual feast for souls hungry for righteousness and for God".

Mr. Robert Hohn sang "O Holy Bread from Heaven." Bishop A. R. Clippinger invited all believers in Jesus Christ to partake of the Lord's Supper with us, and read Paul's commission for the observance of this ceremony. Rev. Roy D. Miller led in prayer of thanks and consecration

Frank, E. R. Turner, H. G. Clark and E. L. Smith served the people: and together in this solemn ceremony we remembered and worshipped Jesus Christ. In this service we used the hymns "Bread of Heaven, On Thee We Feed" and "O, Jesus I Have Promised."

Tonight the world trembles on the verge of war. Meetings are being held to stir up hate and to send men out to kill. You meet in peace to devote yourselves to love of God and of neighbors. We, in Dayton, are a neighborly people. We have no key to the city. Our gates our wide open and to you we give a glad welcome."

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke in response to these words of welcome on behalf of the conference. "I feel very much at home here. Miami Conference is at home here. We are glad to be here and we hope to make a valued contribution to the life of this city."

The Euclid Avenue choir sang "My God and I."

Rev. J. Gordon Howard, D.D., spoke on "Christian Education Begins at Home." "The great point of strategic importance in serving and saving personality is the home. If the church can control and guide the home success is assured. For any successful Christian education there must be in the home a sense of security, a sense or order and purpose, a recognition of the growth of personality as the central purpose of the home and a sense of God. We need more knowledge of the Bible, better worship, a greater awareness of God and a greater sense of our responsibility to others."

"When I am weak, then am I strong." "This is one of the great paradoxes of the Bible. We desire to be strong but we all have our weaknesses. Weakness may be used to make us strong. When weakness and suffering come, if we go on without complaint but with faith and courage, we are made strong and in this experience may prove the triumph of the spiritual. The strongest souls have been sustained in their suffering with strength more than their own."

Following this comforting address, Bishop Clippinger led in prayer, especially for the sick and the afflicted.

Dr. B. F. Lamb, executive secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches, spoke in the interest of the work of this council. "The trouble back of all troubles in the world today is that we have too much human selfishness and too little Christ-likeness. The task of the church is to cultivate Christ-likeness. This is not an easy task. Many things today develop selfishness. I ask your support for the Ohio Council of Churches and every other cooperative enterprise for a larger and more effective influence of Christianity in the life of this day of great needs and great tasks. Let us with courage and faith work together until there is enough Christ-likeness to ensure a world of righteousness and peace."

He told of his own confidence in God's leadership and help as he undertakes this new and great task and of his personal appreciation of the good-will toward him and the Seminary.

He then spoke on the report of the Commission. "We need to emphasize the call for full time Christian service and then to direct those whom God may call to our colleges and our seminary. United Brethren preachers need the experience of our denominational schools. Pray for us, for at the Seminary we need the atmosphere of God and prayer is the secret of that atmosphere. See that the literature and envelopes provided for Cash Day are used and that the call of the Seminary is given to every member."

Mrs. E. J. Drake, president of the Bonebrake Seminary Auxiliary, spoke, explaining the work of that organization. "We are trying to make for beauty and comfort in the Seminary buildings. We have painted kitchen, dining room, corridors, and most of the rooms. We have curtained the windows of the dormitory. This year we are spending about $1,900.

"Our dues are 25c for individuals and $5.00 for groups. We extend to all of you and through you to the women of Miami Conference the invitation to affiliate with us and to enjoy with us this work."

"The last fiscal year has called for some extra expense in making some long deferred repairs, the cost of which totaled over $12,000. This is all paid and the debt of the home is reduced. There are now 108 aged folks and about 150 children cared for and provided for in the home. We need a good large Christmas offering. Give the folks on the fringe of your constituency an opportunity to help in this and other offerings. Gather the crumbs, the more you know of the home, the more glad and willing you will be to help."

Mr. W. H. Cassel, treasurer of Otterbein Home, asked how many had visited the home and nearly all raised their hands indicating they had done so. "Housing and feeding and caring for the Otterbein Home family costs about $80,000 a year. We trust you to do your share gladly in this great Christian enterprise."

Dr. J. A. Lyter, editor of Sunday School literature, spoke on the "Home and the Coming Generation." "The foundation of character is laid in babyhood. The home is the most important educational institution. Cities are not kind to the home and the family. Great souls grow better in open spaces. Today the home is threatened; marriage is a loose knot; children are unwanted; and divorce is easy and frequent. Life is a rush, there is little time for worship or fellowship. Children grow up just like 'Topsy.' We think too much of the economic life of our children and too little of the moral and spiritual. Too much of our reading is bad reading. Your editors and the publishing house are making faithful efforts to supply the right kind of literature, circulate it and read it."

Rev. R. V. Pelton and Rev. L. G. Ludwick were honored as Telescope quota winners for this year.

The Ladies Quartet from the Ginghamsburg Church sang "I know of a City," and "Jesus Satisfied Me."

The choir sang "Ho Every One That Thirsteth."

Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton, nationally known author and speaker was introduced and gave a remarkable address on "Present Problems of The Home." "There is more earnest search for the meaning of the life and words of Jesus Christ today than ever before in the world. A Christian is one who is conditioned for collective living. Our effort is not so much to fit folks for heaven as to fit folks for making a heaven here.

"Our failure has been in that we have not fitted folks to live. Folks are not 'cads' but they are failures in home and marriage. 'Communion of saints' is not a doctrine of theology but an achievement in fellowship. We must develop skills for living together and learn the art of successful marriage.

"There are four great patterns of marriage: the patriarchal where the male is dominant; the conventional where it is a matter of caste and class and convenience; the marriage for the state as in the totalitarian state; and the romantic marriage where the foundation is the love of the contracting parties.

"There is today the question whether or not the romantic pattern of marriage is proving worthy of survival. The high divorce rate, the alarming decline in the birth rate and the rising tide of juvenile delinquency are indications that this pattern of marriage is not serving society. Marriage should mean larger life and personal growth for the man and woman, and children that will serve society. We must learn to surrender the 'I' in the larger 'We.' We must find and teach a philosophy of life that will make for successful and happy marriage and family life. We must put Christianity into sex life. Marriage should be one of the great sacraments of the church. The mood of the modern mind is, 'We hope we shall be happy, but if not there is a way out.' The spirit that makes successful marriage is the spirit of unselfish love and sacrifice. We need to be purged of unholy ambitions and sense of guilt. We need steadiness of faith, loyalty of purpose, and the insights into the processes of becoming fit for the tasks and privileges of marriage and parenthood. We need to think with clarity and courage and to live with love."

Mrs. Overton closed with an earnest prayer of consecration. We were dismissed with prayer by Bishop A. R. Clippinger.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

We sang "The Doxology." Rev. J. F. Royer led in prayer. We sang "Fill Me Now."

The morning devotional message by Bishop A. R. Clippinger was based on verses from the fourth chapter of Exodus, and was on the theme "Using What We Have for the Glory of God." "Moses felt his weakness. Most folks have an inferiority complex. Many fail because they do not count on God. We need to be convinced of the sure help of God. Trust God and use what you have. God does not ask us to do the impossible but to use what we have and to do what we can. What you have to do, do with all your might and God will do what ye cannot do." The address closed with earnest prayer for God's help in all our work.

The conference quartet sang "He'll Go with You."

The minutes for Wednesday were read and approved.

Mrs. O. T. Deever brought the greetings from the Miami Branch of the Women's Missionary Association.

"Our purpose is to win all women and girls of our churches to a larger consecration to the work of Christ in all the world. Woman's greatest opportunity for lasting growth is in the home. We seek to make our homes and all homes more Christ-centered that we may lift the world from slavery, superstition and sin, to victorious living in Jesus Christ. We appreciate your help and ask your continued cooperation in all our efforts."

A motion was made and carried that Rev. George Oliver carry the greetings of this conference to the next meeting of Miami Branch.

Rev. J. A. Pantle was introduced and spoke. "I have preached for forty years and delivered many addresses, I have always been nervous and I am nervous now. I am glad to be here. I am busy, I sing a great deal." He recited in his happy way several poems and sang "In the Garden" and "Land of Beulah."

Rev. E. E. Saul came to the platform and spoke. "I live in a large and lonesome city. I feel most keenly the joy of the fellowship of these days. 'I thank my God for every remembrance of you.' I thank God for the privilege of having worked with the men who were in Miami Conference in the days that are gone. I remember Bishops Edwards, Glossbrenner, Weaver, Cassel and all who have followed them. I am proud of them all and of the men with whom I worked." He showed a picture of 12 of the grand old men of Miami Conference that was taken about 25 years ago.

Rev. O. D. Wellbaum read the report of the Committee on Elder's Orders and by this report Rev. Edward Lee Niswander was recommended for ordination as an Elder. (Report No. 22.) After the Disciplinary questions were answered by Rev. L. M. Hohn by unanimous vote of the Elders, the report was adopted.

We sang "Face to Face."

Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton was introduced and gave the second of her addresses on the theme "Safeguarding the Christian Home." "Things do not happen, they are achieved. God is helpless without consecrated men and women. Homes are the work of God and man and woman. We have no destiny apart from our families. Preachers may become so ambitious that they become ruthless in family relations. Success of the family is not of the individual but of the group, there must be solidarity and understanding within the four walls of the home.

"No one knows young people. They feel so differently from us. They are clever but fundamentally honest. They meet four great dilemmas. They are vocationally conscious and eager and they face a world of unemployment. They know that the body is organic to personality but they lack conviction for living with this body. Todays knowledge and tempo lead to rapid courtship and early marriage but life makes long postponement often necessary. Youth are disillusioned about material living and we are failing in teaching them the meaning and method of spiritual life. There is no philosophy and no religion so adequate to meet these four dilemmas as the philosophy and the religion of Jesus Christ. His saying 'A man that saveth his life shall lose it but he that loseth his life shall find it,' is a fundamental truth for youth today. It is a great time for preaching but we must be sound mentally, emotionally and spiritually."

Dr. L. C. Weimer said "Nothing can take the place of the Christian Home." Mrs. Overton said, "The Christian home gives us our attitudes. It is pivotal." Dr. C. W. Brewbaker related an encouraging experience of work with youth.

Rev. M. B. Klepinger asked "What about family worship?" Mrs. Overton answered by telling of a boy who had said to her "My parents have too much religion—prayers, and I hate them. Right and wrong and mostly wrong; going to church and sitting in a pew where we look funny." Religion is not religious activity but religion in action, unless prayer captures the interest of the child it is of little value.

Rev. J. A. Pantle asked "How about too much Church?" Mrs. Overton answered "We take children through experiences that they do not take. We break fellowship by making them go to church. We must help them to become self-motivated. We must try to lead them to a God-consciousness that will make worship meaningful and attractive."

We adjourned with prayer by Dr. W. E. Snyder.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

We sang together "Higher Ground," with Dr. F. L. Dennis as leader. After reference by Bishop Clippinger to a letter which he received that carried the request "Send us a preacher who will let us sing the old hymns" we sang with spirit "Rock of Ages." Dr. W. G. Clippinger, president of Otterbein College was introduced and spoke on the theme "What will keep a College Christian." "There are some dangerous trends in college, and in national life today that bring a threat that Christian colleges may not continue Christian. There is a trend toward emphasis on size and financial standing. We Americans are afflicted with meglomania. There is a faith in salvation by arithmetic. There is an emphasis on and a faith in science and invention, I call it salvation by work. There is a trend toward organization. We are more and more organized, salvation by machinery. There is a trend toward regimentation, a theory of salvation by uniformity. There is a trend toward state and government control of education. This is in line with the world wide drift toward the proleterian state, salvation by dictatorship.

"To meet and overcome these trends we must maintain a high standard of equipment and educational work; we must rediscover the purposes of the founders of our Christian coleges; we must recognize the place of religion in any program of education. We must be courageously willing to be different. We must be willing to finance these Christian institutions. We must keep the spirit of our homes Christian and we must keep the college in the minds of these Christian homes."

Rev. J. P. Hendrix presented a signed resolution in regard to Otterbein College and President W. G. Clippinger and the choice of a worthy successor. The resolution was adopted, by a unanimous vote. (Report No. 26.)

Mr. D. A. Puderbaugh read the report of Ministerial Pensions. The report was adopted. (Report No. 27.) The campaign has not been pressed in this area but all pastors and churches are expected to enter vigorously into this effort right after this conference. Seek out folks with larger sums to give or to invest in an annuity plan for preacher pension.

Otterbein Church in Dayton, Pyrmont, Savona Antioch and Springboro have each paid one-fifth or more of their quota.

It is recommended that churches secure copies of this playlet from Dr. D. T. Gregory and have it presented by a cast of players.

We were led in prayer by Bishop A. R. Clippinger and dismissed.

The Orpheus Chorus assisted by Mrs. Ruby Vernon Gebhart presented an excellent program of classical music.

The benediction was by Rev. C. D. Letner.

FRIDAY MORNING SESSION

We sang "Marvelous Grace" and "I am Listening". Rev. A. P. Peden led in prayer.

Dr. C. E. Ashcraft, Dean of Bonebrake Seminary, gave the devotional address. He read the Beatitudes and spoke on "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth." "Here in the Beatitudes are our standards of attainment, measures of our Christianity and our great objectives in Christian living and Christian education. In these Beatitudes and in Galatians 5:22 where Paul names the fruits of the spirit, we have nine elements of character.

"One of these is meekness. Meekness is not being a doormat. Moses was a great scholar, statesman, lawgiver, mystic and leader and yet he is called the meekest man. The meekness of Moses was in his self-control. Self-control is the greatest need of our age. There is disintegration of personality, of families, of institutions and of the world because of the lack of self-control.

"The terribly meek, the strong and self-controlled shall inherit the earth. The world is not to be conquered but to be inherited by the children of God, the Christ-like, the meek, and the self-controlled."

Doctor Ashcraft led us in earnest prayer at the close of his address.

Mrs. W. I. Comfort sang beautifully "Thy Way, Not Mine, O Lord."

Mr. H. B. Pilchard, representing the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, was introduced and addressed the conference. "We are in the fight to win but are handicapped by wet laws and a wet legislature. Principles must be placed above party politics. There is need for a law which will provide that accidents caused by liquor shall be paid for by the liquor interests. The program of temperance calls for the cooperation of all the church."

The report of the Committee on Temperance was read by Rev. L. G. Ludwick and adopted. (Report No. 31.)

Superintendent L. M. Hohn spoke of the sincere desire of the Stationing Committee to do the very best for the kingdom, for pastors and the local churches.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke feelingly of the need for more conversions, and accessions during the coming year. He urged that evangelism be a major part of the year's program. He invited the ministers to gather at the altar for a brief consecration. After a season of prayer and benediction by the Bishop, we were dismissed.

A motion was made and carried that the 129th Session of Miami Annual Conference adjourn "sine die" following the evening service.

FRIDAY EVENING SESSION

The organ prelude played by Mrs. Chas. Funkhouser was "Nocturne" by Chopin. The congregation sang "Now The Day Is Over." Rev. J. A. Robinson led in the prayer of invocation. The Euclid Avenue Choir sang "God is our Refuge."

Rev. E. R. Turner read Phillipians 3:7-16 and led in prayer. The evening offering was received and is to be applied on Ministerial Relief.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger spoke on "A Forward Move." His text was Exodus 14:15. "A conference session is a time for reports, fellowship, inspiration and planning; a time of review and preview. Tonight we face the future.

At the Red Sea the future did not look bright for Israel, but God led them through to freedom and victory. God speaks to us today as He did to them then, "God forward." In this crucial hour in the life of the world, God's command is "Forward."

"Let us go forward in Bible Study, in good works, in evangelism and religious experience. We need not more organization but more inspiration. We need new and higher experiences of God in Jesus Christ. May God add His blessing and give us good success this year."

We sang "Higher Ground." Bishop A. R. Clippinger read the report of the Stationing Committee (Report No. 36) and led in the closing prayer.

COMMENTS

Rev. Roy D. Miller, Miss Ella Hamilton and all the workers of Euclid Avenue faithfully cared for every detail that helped make for the comfort of the conference.

There was a spirit of harmony and good will throughout the conference. The business was conducted with dispatch and with remarkable unanimity.

The addresses were of high order and Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton, guest speaker, was an inspiration to all who heard her.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

"Christ has made of death a narrow star-lit strip between the companionship of yesterday and the reunion of tomorrow",—thus spoke that godly and brilliant statesman—Wm. Jennings Bryan, in his last great message to floundering humanity. And how glad we are that his statement is true. "We do not mourn as those that have no hope." We believe that Christ is the resurrection and the life and that all who live and believe on Him shall never die.

Some one has said that "Life is infinite opportunity", but this is only true if life itself is infinite, and thank God, it is. It begins but has no end. Over there life will have a new day, and a far more wonderful chance. We see but the bud here, but there we shall see the glorious luxuriant bloom. Here we see dimly, but then face to face; here we know in part, but then we shall know fully. Then we shall learn the meaning of our tears, and understand how our afflictions have worked out eternal weights of glory. So we know that our dead in Christ have been promoted and that they share His glory and that they are but a few steps ahead. We are persuaded that "death is but a star-lit strip between the companionship of yesterday and the reunion of tomorrow." Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Main, Rev. C. McNelly, Dr. J. P. Landis, Rev. J. Assel, Mrs. H. A. Secrist and Mrs. Frank Oldt, have left our ranks during the past year, but our fellowship with them will be renewed tomorrow, if we are faithful to the end. May we keep this uppermost in our minds as we listen to the tributes of love that will be given by those that follow me on this program.

REV. AND MRS. J. H. MAYNE

Rev. Joseph H. Mayne in early manhood was a teacher in the public schools. While teaching he felt called of God to give his life to the gospel ministry. He heeded the call and gave more than forty years to the active pastorate in Miami Conference. Brother Mayne was a man with a good intellect. He was a good Bible student and knew the Word. He was also a good gospel preacher. A man who heard him for the first time said, "I was delighted, inspired, instructed and helped." He accepted every charge to which he was assigned and was obedient to those who had the management of the church. Brother Mayne was willing to make great sacrifices for the cause. He believed that it was a part of the ministers obligation to sacrifice, if he desired to be like his Master, who made the supreme sacrifice.

Mrs. Mayne was a companion and helper to her husband. Her greatest work in life was the making and keeping of the home. She reared a large family of children, which in itself is a great task. She went with him without complaining wherever he was sent.

REV. CALVIN McNELLY

As we look back over the months that separate us from last October, when Rev. Calvin McNelly was laid to rest in the beautiful burying ground near his old home, we find a vacancy that years will not fill, for a great and good man has fallen.

Brother McNelly's ministry was marked with earnestness and sincerity. No sermon was complete until it was garnished with love, a virtue that he exemplified in his own life: He loved God, he loved the Church, and he loved people. Another virtue outstanding in his life was faith—He believed God.

When past middle age, Brother McNelly came to our denomination for work, and he was immediately given the task of accomplishing the impossible. But his great love for the Church, and his wonderful faith in God, connected with his ability for hard work, enabled him to lay the foundation for a promising congregation in Miami Conference.

In his closing years he was a faithful, sympathetic, benevolent and zealous member of the Clifton congregation; the church to which he had given the better years of his life.

He had many calls to assist his brethren during his years of retirement, and when health and time permitted, was the speaker for many special occasions.

Truly it is a great and good man who has been called from labor to reward.

DR. J. P. LANDIS

Dr. J. P. Landis was a scholar, a teacher, an orator, and thinker. He was a soldier, a pastor, a counsellor and friend, an internationally known Hebrew student, a superior man. He was a good example of Christian faith and character.

Truth, honor, frankness, health, order, industry, cheerfulness, humility and helpfuness are some of the traits of his character that are greater than scholarship or position.

Doctor Landis was the first President of the Young People's Christian Union of the United Brethren Church and served in this capacity from 1890 to 1902. He was pastor in Miami Conference and in 1871 began his service with what is now Bonebrake Seminary. He was professor of Hebrew 1871 to 1874 and then from 1880 to 1886, professor of Systematic Theology from 1886 to 1891, of Hebrew and Old Testament from 1891 to 1907. Dean from 1907 to 1910, President from 1910 to 1921 and Professor Emeritus to the time of his death.

In his service to young men in the Seminary and in a wide ministry throughout the denomination and in service in his own church and in the city of Dayton he has meant and will continue to mean much for the church and the Kingdom of God. Life has been richer and a bit more Christian for multitudes because of the touch of his friendship.

REV. JOHN ASSEL

Rev. John Assel was born on Willey Road near Bevis, Colerain Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, March 12. 1857, and was called home August 15, 1938, at the age of eighty-two years.

He served as pastor in the United Brethren Church for fifty-four years, in the Ohio German Conference and after the disbandment of this conference in the Miami Conference.

During his ministry he served the following churches: Circleville and Chillicothe, Hamilton, Greenbush and Germantown, Veedersburg, Indiana, Danville, Illinois, Cleveland Third, Otterbein Dayton, Cincinnati First, Zanesville, Chicago, Illinois and Second Church, Cincinnati.

Rev. Assel was a faithful, loving, humble minister and ambassador of Jesus Christ. He grew to a beautiful old age. He was blest with a capable and faithful wife and companion and to them were given fifty-seven years together before she passed on into the other world on Easter morning in 1936.

He was lovingly cared for during his last illness by his children in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Esther Luessen of Cincinnati.

Reverend Assel leaves to mourn his going three children: Mrs. Esther Luessen of Cincinnati who cared for him until he was taken to the hospital, two sons, Walter of Cleveland and Harry of Canton, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Bussdicker of Cincinnati, and six grandchildren, a Sunday School class who have lost a capable and loving teacher, a church who have lost a faithful member, and countless friends.

MRS. H. A. SECHRIST

My earliest acquaintance with Mrs. Sechrist dates back to the time when she and Mr. Sechrist followed us in the work on a certain charge in this Conference. On a return visit she opened her home to me and we had sweet fellowship. Surrounded by her little children and busily engaged in Church work, yet she had time for her friends.

Later we followed Reverend and Mrs. Sechrist on another charge. There we early learned of her untiring ministry in the work of that Church. Her unceasing interest in every phase of the work, her kindly counsel, her beautiful spirit, were manifest at every turn for everyone had some word of praise for her as a pastor's wife and home-keeper. Later still, when Mr. Sechrist went into the general church work of the denomination and the family located in Dayton, it was our blessed privilege to have them come into church fellowship here at Euclid Avenue. Strengthened became the ties of an already beautiful friendship, and many were the hours we spent in her home and working side by side in promoting the interests of our local church. As president of the women's organization and as a leader in other church activities, she manifested the same sweet spirit, and many are the friends today who, with her children, "rise up to call her blessed."

MRS. ORA MAXWELL OLDT

Mrs. Ora Maxwell Oldt, a missionary in China for thirty-two years, died June 29, 1938.

Ora Maxwell graduated from Otterbein College, in 1906, and late that summer sailed to become the bride of Dr. Frank Oldt who had gone to China the previous year as a medical missionary. Three children were born to this union: Maxwell, Mary Ruth and Margaret. These all survive.

Dr. and Mrs. Oldt first labored in Siu Lam, where they had a large part in establishing the medical work, and in supervising the construction of the Ramsburg Hospital and medical residence. Returning from furlough, in 1921, they were stationed in Canton where Doctor Oldt has since headed a tremendous program of pubic health, in connection with the Canton Christian Hospital.

Mrs. Oldt has been active in many phases of missionary service. Striking and vivid accounts from her pen, telling of the horrible bombings of Canton by Japanese armies, have appeared in our publications. With all her soul she hated war. Among her eloquent appeals for China Mrs. Oldt said, "Pray without ceasing that the members of Christ's living Church in China, shine with the radiance of his glory in these dark and troublesome days."

Report No. 9

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH ERECTION

With the startling fact in mind that over one million new criminals will be added to the criminal class this year (consisting largely of a group of people who have never had the blessings of a church), and seeing the prevalance of divorce, the forsaking of the church by so many of its members, the rapidity with which certain "isms" are rising that may deal a deathblow to our religion, we understand the need of concentrated efforts toward salvation of men and the need of mission churches in those communities where churches are scarce.

You and I are responsible for this concentration of effort in our individual churches, and, indirectly through the Board of Home Missions and Church Erection, we are responsible for the home mission churches of the denomination. The church has lost its fervent zeal for missionary work, although we continue to teach that the power of the church is the spirit of missionary endeavor. It will be our task, as consecrated pastors and laymen, to make Home Missions a definite part of the church program for the coming year.

To this end we suggest:

1. That an extensive study be made of rural and urban America, that a wider knowledge be gained of the living conditions of people throughout the nation. That pastors should acquaint themselves personally with the Home Mission Board, its work, and the mission fields.

2. That an intensive program be promoted during November, Home Mission month, to emphasize the excellent work and the needs of the Home Mission churches, culminating in an offering for the benefit of this work.

3. That every pastor borrow the 1938-1939 Budget of literature of his local missionary society, read it for his own inspiration, and cooperate with that society in a united movement toward Home Mission Sunday, November 20.

4. That we pray for enlarged strength and vision on the part of the general secretary of the Home Mission Board, Dr. U. P. Hovermale, and his associate, Dr. S. B. Williams. Pray with the knowledge that you and I make up a very large part of that strength and vision.

"Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen."

Respectfully submitted,
WALTER G. PECK, Committee.

Report No. 11
REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT

To our beloved Bishop and to the brethren of the Miami Conference; Greetings in the name of him who loved us and gave himself for us.

The year has been fraught with anxiety, care and joy. The one regret is that I could not do more for the cause as represented in our great Conference. It has been an honor to work with you for him during this year. Someone has said, "The best cannot be put in a report" because spiritual things cannot be measured with pen and paper.

Our Conference is divided into seven districts with two leaders over each district. We have one hundred and ten churches in the Conference, served by eighty-one faithful pastors.

I. Our Ministry.

At the close of the last conference Rev. F. G. Sanger resigned the Rossburg Circuit and a little later Rev. I. Barrett resigned the West Elkton church and was appointed to the Rossburg circuit. Rev. D. Woodburn was appointed to the West Elkton church and served for about three months. The last of July, Reverend Barrett resigned the Rossburg Circuit. No one was appointed to either of these churches to fill out the year.

There has been little sickness and no death among our active pastors. There has been some sickness and a few operations in the families of our ministers. Rev. S. E. Rasey had an attack of sickness about the middle of the summer and has been incapacitated ever since. Rev. Phillip Deever cared for the work of Brother Rasey down to the conference. On advice of his physician Brother Rasey will not take work this year.

Death has entered the ranks of our retired ministers, removing Rev. J. H. Mayne, Rev. C. McNelly, Dr. J. P. Landis and Rev. J. Assel. Also death has removed Mrs. J. H. Mayne, Mrs. H. A. Sechrist, and Mrs. Frank Oldt. Our sympathies go out to these families in their bereavement.

II. Our Quarterly Conferences.

The Quarterly Conferences were fairly well attended. Those attending gave splendid cooperation and a fine spirit prevailed throughout.

There was evidence of good and faithful work being done in every department. It was the privilege of your superintendent to be present for one hundred and seventy-seven quarterlies.

Quarterly Conference licenses were renewed for Herbert L. Myers, of Middletown; D. C. Woodburn, of High Street; Charles Messmer, of Newport; Herbert Bosey, of Otterbein, Dayton; Harry Sinks, of Columbus Avenue and John Clippinger, of Euclid Avenue.

Quarterly Conference licenses were granted to Mr. C. Potts, of Union City and Mrs. C. S. Zimmerman, of Southern Hills. Rev. Clifford D. Stearns coming from the Methodist Episcopal Church united with our Mt. Airy Church was granted Quarterly Conference standing.

The Quarterly Conference, of Middletown Church, recommends Herbert L. Myers to the Miami Annual Conference for membership.

III. Evangelism.

The need of the day is a greater sense of God's will and a passion for souls. Much has been done during the year to win men and women to the Christ and his kingdom; many have held catechetical classes; vacation schools and cooperated with Week Day Schools of Religion in the attempt to enrich the souls of boys and girls.

Your superintendent has assisted in six evangelistic meetings during the year. The purpose in the beginning was to help the small churches, and I have succeeded in this in every case except in one where the church was larger than had been in the early contemplations. The results of these meetings are reflected in the reports of the churches assisted.

IV. Religious Education.

The Board of Religious Education last year recommended that the conference superintendent be made the general director of Religious Education in the Conference. That was done and through the efforts of the departmental directors a fine program of religious education was carried out. Three conventions were held during the year; the Adult Convention at the Fairview church under the leadership of Rev. Roy Miller; the Young People's Convention in the Euclid Avenue Church, under the leadership of Rev. Harvey Hahn and the Children's Workers' Convention in the Olivet Church under the leadership of Mrs. Will Hopkins. The Leadership Training School at the Bonebrake Seminary was under the leadership of Rev. M. D. Kidwell and his able co-laborers. The Otterbein Training School was well attended from our Conference. A number of local Training Schools and a number of Vacation Schools have been conducted throughout the Conference.

V. A Review of Major Items.

The reports in the main are good, some are inaccurate and some are incomplete. Thus the figures I shall give will likely differ some from those given by other Conference Officials. Yet in the main they will give us a fair idea of the way we are moving.

The membership of the Conference at the beginning of the year is reported to be 26,999, the number received on confession of faith 1086, those received from U. B. churches 265 and those received from other denominations 260, making the number in the church for the year 28,610. The members lost during the year stands at 1,615, leaving the present membership at 26,995, a loss of five.

The Sunday School enrollment is 24,236 and the average attendance 12,814. Salaries paid to pastors $111,430.00 and the total money raised for local purposes $313,555.00. Benevolences $36,203.00 with a grand total for Benevolences $59,013.00. Total for all purposes $372,568.00.

Under pastoral functions we have, baptisms 966, funerals 728, weddings 379, books read 1,935, pastoral calls 37,215 and sermons delivered 7,232.

The pastor's Supplemental Reports are checked and graded, there is one 100% church in the conference, five 95%, five 93%, five 90%, the rest range in figures down to 33%. There are 54 Senior Christian Endeavor societies, 18 Intermediate societies, 20 Junior societies, 80 W. M. A. organizations and 50 Otterbein Guilds, 85 Ladies' Aid Societies, 5 Stewardship Classes, 13 Brotherhoods, 24 Leadership Training Classes, and 18 Vacation Schools.

VI. Church Property.

We have 110 church houses and 53 parsonages. Very few churches and parsonages have come through without some kind of repairs being made. Many buildings have been redecorated and painted, some have been reroofed and in several new heating plants have been installed.

Two new parsonages have been added to the number of pastor's manses during the year, one at Verona and one at High Street. These parsonages are of high quality and will serve in a spendid way. The Phillipsburg parsonage was rebuilt and made into a beautiful home.

Two Hammond Electric organs have been installed during the year. One at Batavia and the other at Vandalia.

VII. Our Attitude Toward Ministerial Pension.

We should accept our quota for Ministerial Pension as many of our churches have done. Nineteen churches have accepted their quota and provided for $24,455.00 and have paid on the pledges $2,641.00. We should have in, to our Conference treasurer $15,504.00 by November 1, 1938. It appears for the good of the cause we should print in our Conference minutes the names of the churches with their quotas and the amount paid by each church, and continue this until the Ministerial Pension has been raised.

VIII. Recommendations.

1. That E. L. Niswander be referred to the committee on Elders' Orders.
2. That Herbert Myers be received into the membership of the Conference.
3. That the matter of debt paying schedules be referred to the Trustees.
4. That we make the Rossburg Circuit a full time work on the following condition: a. That the circuit pay $900.00 and that the conference pay $200.00; thus making this a rural church project of the Conference.
5. That we hold a series of Rural Life Institutes this year; one in the northern part, one in the central part and one in the southern part of the conference.
6. That Moores Fork be placed under the care of the Southeast Ohio Conference.
7. That we set our Seminary Cash Day Goal at 10% of our Benevolence budget.
8. That we set a time in the year when we stress good literature for the home. And that the planning of this project be placed in the hands of a committee, or in the charge of the Council of Religious Education.
9. That we hold to the Quadrennial Goals as set down by our Denomination in its last General Conference.
10. That we again commit ourselves to the task of raising a full Benevolent Budget in the coming year.

Conclusion.

I do appreciate the fine fellowship and unity that exists in our Conference, the unfailing kindness and consideration shown me, the cooperation and loyalty of the laymen.

I have appreciated the council and guidance of Bishop A. R. Clippinger and the assistance of our able District Leaders.

Yours in Him,

L. M. HOHN.

Report No. 15
OBSERVATIONS AND COMPARISONS

While the report shows a net decrease in Miami Conference membership of four, there was a gain to the denomination of 100. This is accounted for by the transfer of Bloom Rose Church to Southeast Ohio Conference a year ago.

There are the following increases over a year ago:

Conversions, 241; Christian Endeavor Societies, 13; Missionary Organizations, 4.

Though Sunday School enrollment remains about the same as last year, there is an increase of average attendance of 606. There is a total increase of United Brethren literature used in our Sunday Schools of 1385. At the same time there is a decline in other literature of 432. After a decrease in Religious Telescope subscriptions for the last few years, there is an increase the past year of 86. Also, during the past two years Miami Messenger subscriptions have increased about 600. This decrease in the use of non-denominational literature and increase in the use of Otterbein Press literature indicates to the Statistical Secretary a trend that is manifest throughout the nation, namely, a renewed devotion to denominational interests.

There was an increase in pastor's salary contracts of $3688. However, twenty churches failed to pay their pastors in full by August 31, while eight churches paid their pastors more than the salary contracts.

The total amount paid for all purposes was $31,630 less than last year This is accounted for by less paid for building construction during the past twelve months. There is an increase of debt on church and parsonage property of $35,610. The balance in treasuries is $11,000 more than last year, and there is less current operating debt by $3571.

The reports, as a whole indicate a growing determination among pastors and churches to balance their budgets and to pay off debts as soon as possible.

Pastors have noted that contributions to Preacher Pension Endowment are not included in the total "for all purposes". Following is the explanation: 1. Following this four year period of the Endowment campaign there will naturally be a considerable let-down in the grand total giving. It would indicate a backward step for local churches to have this let-down reflected in their "totals for all purposes." 2. Comparisons made by state and federal bureaus of Statistics would thus reveal a decrease in benevolent giving five years hence and thereafter, were Endowment Funds included. Therefore, pastors have been requested to indicate all contributions to Preacher Pension Endowment on the line designated in the Annual report blanks.

With one exception all full time pastors belong to churches on charges which they serve.

Report No. 16
REPORT ON THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH

The Christian Sabbath is an integral part of Christianity. Whenever Christians have failed to keep it as a day of rest, worship, and fellowship the validity and virility of their Christian experience has suffered. Religiously speaking, the Christian must keep the Sabbath.

But the fact remains that a large percent of Church members occasionally or regularly misuse the Sabbath and practically all non-Church people do so. As Christian leaders we are not then confronted with a problem which can be solved by the mere quoting of scripture to prove that the Sabbath must be kept.

First, we must distinguish between Christians and non-Christians in the observance of the Sabbath. We must ask ourselves if we can and if we desire to force the observance of the Christian Sabbath upon those who repudiate the Christian assumptions. If we do wish to use force then our only resort is to enact and enforce a set of modern "Blue-laws."

The alternative is to develop Sabbath observance among Christians and Church members. If the Sabbath is what we claim it is then we ought to be able to demonstrate its value in our own lives. If our keeping the first day of the week holy enables us to live more effectively than our pagan neighbors little argument and no force will be necessary.

Our program should include meaningful worship services, significant preaching, and Christian Education on the highest educational and spiritual level. We must also work to establish family worship and discover and develop family activities which will fill the Sabbath so full of holy activities that there will be no time for unholy ones.

Thus may we not only remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy but we shall look forward to it eagerly as a day of gladness—the "day of all the week the best."

REPORT OF THE BONEBRAKE SEMINARY COMMISSION

The Miami Conference is fortunate in the location of The Bonebrake Theological Seminary at the very center of our conference territory. Its accessibility has been a blessing to various churches in which faculty and students have served. In recognition of our debt to the Seminary, the Miami Conference, through student appointments, has made it possible for hundreds of students to enroll in Bonebrake. In addition, this conference stands second to none in the denomination in the financial support given.

We have further cause for interest in our Seminary in the recent election of one of our pastors, Rev. W. N. Roberts, Ph.D. to the presidency. We are confident that he will be susceptible to divine leadership in this office.

BE IT RESOLVED:

First—that we pray the Lord of the harvest to call new recruits into full time Christian service.

Second—that we pray often for President and faculty to the end that their teaching shall be reverent, evangelistic and spiritual, as well as scholarly.

Third—That we observe Bonebrake Seminary Day October 16, 1938, using the literature already in our hands. That where a full benevolence budget is not assured by the every member canvass, a well planned offering be received on said day, and designated for Bonebrake Seminary.

Fourth—That the goal for this offering on any charge shall be an amount equal to ten percent of the benevolence budget.

Fifth—That all pastors who are appointed to new fields present to their successors the literature already received, together with the names of key workers for the Cash day offering.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

In view of the present world situation, we must speak in no uncertain terms, and with an urgency which cannot be denied, when we solicit the cooperation of all our churches in the promotion of world evangelism and the recreation of spiritual ideals—ideals which in many hearts lie dormant, or perhaps have been wholly given up in the pursuit of worldly pleasure and greed of gain. Cooperation, the human condition for a spiritually vital church, must be not only conference-wide but denominationally so.

Our primary interest centers around world evangelism. In order to inform and enlist the Church we must—

(a) Enlist the members in intercessory prayer for missions and missionaries.

(b) Present missions in sermons or at prayer service at least once a quarter.

(c Have our Sunday schools observe one Sunday a month as mission study, using "Worship Pathways" as a guide.

(d Observe Foreign Mission Day the first Sunday in March.

(e) Emphasize the importance of the benevolences. We are dependent upon benevolent contributions for the support of the work.

There are other interests which demand our cooperation because they are of great significance to the missionary cause.

We must assure our missionaries in China that as Christians we are opposed to traffic in arms and do not wish to be partners in wanton destruction, hence the following Resolution:

1. Relative to War Materials

WHEREAS, the United States of America and other nations have repeatedly protested against the bombings of undefended cities and the unnecessary slaughter of non-combatant civilians and children, and

WHEREAS, we feel put to shame that America has continued to supply a substantial portion of the war materials which help to make possible such outrageous attacks upon defenseless civilians and children, and

WHEREAS, the discontinuance of the sale of the materials would do much to restore a sense of national responsibility and national morality in international affairs even though the surrender of profits therefrom would involve sacrifice on the part of many in America.

Therefore, be it resolved (1) that we respectfully petition the President of the United States, in accordance with the principle of his Good Neighbor annunciation, and in the interests of the people of the United States to take every practical means direct or indirect, to bring to an end a traffic from our country which is compelling us to be a partner in the destruction of other peoples' national independence and liberty. (2) That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the President of the United States and to the Secretary of State, also to the local papers.

2. Another phase to be emphasized is relative to China Relief.

The Red Cross Campaign, for China Relief, terminated June 15, with very mediocre results in spite of China's unprecedented need. The Church cannot be the Church and remain indifferent to this distress. It has, therefore, formed the Church Committee for China Relief by appointing representatives from the three constituent groups of North America, the Federal Council of Churches, the Foreign Mission Conference, and the China Famine Relief, for the purpose of raising funds for the China Relief.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that we cooperate in this nation-wide effort to awaken America to her sense of moral obligation to China's suffering millions, and, that as individuals, we accept responsibility for helping arouse interest and securing gifts in our local communities. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ye have done it unto me."

3. And still a third interest that should claim attention is that of the World Missionary Conference in Madras, India, December 13-30, 1938. We are pleased to learn of this Conference when representatives from every part of Christendom will be assembled for prayer and a re-study of the Great Commission in the light of the present world order. We learn with pleasure also that a series of post Madras conferences are planned for Canada and the United States,

THEREFORE, be it resolved that, we join our fellow Christians around the world in prayer that this gathering at Madras may find new light and fresh power which will enable the Church to face with new courage its appointed task, and that we will cooperate in every way possible in making the post Madras conferences a great blessing to the home Church.

With these resolutions not only adopted but carried out, and with the program of world evangelism kept continuously in our plan and thinking, we shall be able to witness a victorious native Church as well as have the Master's approval upon our work as sharers in Kingdom building.

Respectfully submitted,

ELLA F. HAMILTON

OTTERBEIN HOME REPORT

There is but one Pay-Day during the year for Otterbein Home and that comes at the Christmas season; this is due to the fact that Orphanages and Homes do not share in the Benevolence Budget.

The goal set for this one pay day was one dollar per member per year which would be less than 2c per week; but last year the offering, splendid as it was, proved to be less than ½c per week.

The average per member of the contributing churches was 21c and this was ½c less than one year ago, and yet that ½c, small as it may seem, meant a loss of $1371.77.

If the average gift per member would reach 32c, the total would cover all operating costs; and if the church would reach the goal of $1.00 the operating cost would not only be cared for but the debt would soon be cleared away.

The Christmas Offering is so vital to the work of the Home that every reasonable effort should be made to secure an increase from every church and conference.

Great credit is due the Woman's Auxiliary under the general direction of Mrs. Powell for their splendid work in helping to provide, improve, and beautify where most needed that the greatest comfort and happiness come to the greatest number possible.

Mrs. M. D. Kidwell, who is the president of the Miami Conference Auxiliary is very anxious for the hearty cooperation of the ladies of all the churches of the Conference that many definite things may be accomplished through this organization.

At no time in the history of the Home has there been a greater degree of efficiency nor a finer spirit of cooperation in the administration of the home than at the present time for which all are thankful.

We believe that greater emphasis should be placed on the matter of personal contact with the home by the membership of each congregation when at all possible. Make a pilgrimage and enlist as large a group as possible; for there is no better method of acquainting the church with the home and her needs.

We wish to commend most heartily the Otterbein News. No better messenger of its kind can be found anywhere. I sincerely hope it may find a place in every home of the church. Submitted,

E. C. PETRY.

Report No. 20
REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

Unity of knowledge and program is one of the first essentials to denominational success. This unity can only be attained by a common source of knowledge and inspiration on the part of the members of the churches. Sunday schools where United Brethren literature is not used are in a very unfortunate position. No literature published by any other denomination or by a non-denominational house is right for a United Brethren Sunday School. We desperately need the unifying influence of United Brethren Sunday School literature and of the Telescope and Watchword in our homes. This may as truthfully be said in regard to our church hymnal as well. Churches and pastors who buy hymnals other than our own Church Hymnal are adding to the confusion that all too often exists in our churches. If one could find our own Church Hymnal in every United Brethren Church wherever he goes he would be inclined to feel more at home in his church. The "confusion of tongues" in our types of worship and use of hymns in our churches comes from the fact that we have too often failed to use our own hymnal.

To build a loyal United Brethren constituency we must furnish to our people United Brethren literature. Therefore, be it resolved: 1. That every pastor and church be urged to use United Brethren Sunday-school Literature. 2. That the circulation of the Telescope and Watchword be encouraged by all good means. 3. That churches purchase all their Sunday School and Church supplies through our own publishing house.

Respectfully submitted, J. P. HENDRIX, Committee

Report No. 21
EVANGELISM

The one cardinal and motivating spirit of the early church was the seeking and saving of the lost. This spirit should characterize the ministry and the church of today. If the church loses this holy passion, it ceases to be a soul's saving station, and the world is deprived of a knowledge of the holy Evangel.

We have three types of evangelism at our disposal. First: Mass Evangelism. It can still be used to great advantage in kingdom building, although it is not as popular as it once was. Second: Personal Evangelism. We must go into the home, the office, the store, the factory, on the street or anywhere else with the old, old message of Jesus and His power to save. Contact the individual, and introduce Jesus Christ to him, and lead him into a real experience with the Saviour. Third: Educational evangelism. This method has not been excelled. It is our most fruitful field; it ought to be more widely cultivated.

I would recommend that each pastor, and each local church in the Miami Conference put into their Sabbath Day services, the prayer meeting, the Church Night program, the weekly Lenten service, the Daily Vacation Bible School, the evangelistic service, the spiritual retreat, the Bible School instructional period, the Catechetical Classes, the home visitation, our Special Day's, and all other programs, and services of the church the warm, fervent spirit of evangelism.

Respectfully,

J. L. ARMSTRONG

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PASTOR'S RECORDS AND REPORTS

We, your committee on Pastor's Records and Reports have carefully examined and audited each successor's record and report.

We commend the ministers for their cooperation in presenting neat and well prepared records and reports to the conference. Final audit shows two fewer names listed in all the successor's records than reported to the Statistical Secretary.

The following records were not in the hands of the committee:—

Rossburg Circuit consisting of Rossburg, Hiestand, Rose Hill and Yorkshire; and the West Elkton church.

We commend the East Dayton, West Dayton and Lewisburg Districts for having all records in and all records meeting the requests of the committee.

The committee recommends:

1. That all pastors use the successor's records prescribed by the Discipline.
2. That all names be typed and numbered consecutively.
3. That the address of each member be listed.
4. The names of all members of the Official Board and the officers of the various organizations be listed.

REPORT ON OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

The Church and the world need men and women trained in institutions like Otterbein College. However, small Church Colleges have been and are now facing a serious crisis. President Clippinger has been courageously and effectively presenting the problem to the United Brethren Church and to friends of Otterbein.

In the recent report of the Dean of Otterbein College the following conclusions were presented, "(1) that the best educational work can be done in institutions of Otterbein's type, but (2) that due to limited resources of money and clientele many of them must face extinction, and (3) that a vigorous program of student recruiting at Otterbein should be undertaken to build our treasury and personnel."

The administration and faculty of Otterbein have by means of sacrificial service been able to maintain the endowment fund above the million dollar mark. During the last year the average gain in enrollments for liberal arts colleges was 2.2%. Otterbein gained 3%. The College this past year has aided 211 students with an average of $130 each. Very sound and progressive revisions have been made in the curriculum offered at Otterbein. These are marks of progress and for these developments the Church is indebted to the administration and faculty.

This year Otterbein faces a deficit for the first time in several years; a deficit of $10,000.00. Otterbein is permitted to receive from the denominational budget as much as $12,000.00. This past year the College received only $6,533.00 from the Conferences. The difference, $5,447.00 is an immediate challenge and Miami Conference needs to assume its share of this responsibility.

Colleges like Otterbein are providing Christian leadership in the world today. Christian leadership is the greatest need of our time. Therefore, the small Christian College must survive. Due to the leadership at Otterbein College, educational, spiritual and material advancements have been made in spite of forces operative during depression years. Each Church in Miami Conference needs to cooperate in the following ways:

1. Set up an effective program of student recruiting in its own community.
2. Give much more emphasis to Education Day.
3. Precede Education Day with a carefully planned program of publicity which will result in large offerings.
4. Provide ways and means for prospective students to visit the campus of Otterbein especially on Scholarship Day.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

Otterbein College has for years been the center of Christian idealism, culture and education for the youth of this portion of the United Brethren church. As a conference we wish to hereby express our high appreciation of her standards of Christian education and her loyalty to the ideals of our denomination.

We earnestly express our appreciation of the constructive Christian leadership of President W. G. Clippinger through the past twenty-nine years of the history of the college. His careful and conservative business leadership, his consistent and urgent promotion of higher educational standards and his thoroughly Christian emphasis have made great contribution to the college and the church.

We look forward with deep concern for the selection of a successor to President Clippinger. We respectfully urge upon the Board of Trustees of the college that they be concerned that the new president be not only a trained educator and a trained college administrator but also a sincere Christian, who shall be in entire accord with the religious, moral and spiritual idealism of the United Brethren church.

We pledge our continued loyalty and support to Otterbein College.

MINISTERIAL PENSIONS

The Chambersburg General Conference gave the church as its special financial objective for the quadrennium the completion of the Million Dollar fund for Ministerial Pensions. To this date nineteen churches of Miami Conference have paid in toward this goal $2641.09.

The U. B. Church needs a Preacher Pension Fund for its own self-preservation. The pension plan will inspire confidence, good will and loyalty toward the church which provides for declining years. Ministers are not expected to save money. His service is a sacrificial effort. But few churches ask for old preachers.

This movement is largely a laymens movement. I am convinced that we laymen of Miami Conference will see this great need and so work together and so give that next year we will have a report that will show rapid progress toward the goal of $77,000.00 which is the quota of Miami Conference.

Report No. 29

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Our Conference has every reason to be exceedingly grateful for the splendid growth that has taken place in both our outlook upon Christian Education and in the improvement of our methods of work in the local church. A goodly proportion of our people have come to see that Christian Education to be truly Christian must be warm-hearted, fervent and imbued with the consciousness of God. And, conversely, evangelism and Christian piety must be truly educational and intelligent if they are to be at their best. There is no conflict between true Christian Education and true evangelistic fervor. They are one at their best.

The active promotion of the program of Christian Education is delegated to the executive officers of the Conference Board of Christian Education as follows: Rev. L. M. Hohn, General Director; Rev. M. D. Kidwell, Director of Leadership Training; Rev. Roy D. Miller, Director of Adult Work; Rev. Harvey C. Hahn, Director of Young People's Work; and Mrs. Will Hopkins, Director of Children's Work. We herewith express our deep appreciation of the service and inspiration of all these workers, who have given time out of their busy lives to promote Christian Education in our Conference and who have done this on a purely volunteer basis.

The General Director reports that there have been 416 people enrolled in leadership Training Classes; 199 in week-day schools of religion; 107 in community training schools; 966 in Vacation Church Schools, 296 stewardship enrollments; 37 attending United Brethren Colleges; 146 attending other colleges; and 24,236 Sunday School enrollments with an average attendance of 12,814.

The Director of Leadership Training gives the following report of activities and recommendations: "The Miami Conference Leadership Training School which was held on the Bonebrake Seminary Campus, June 13-17, had an enrollment of 223 persons. We issued 148 First Series credits and 132 Second Series credits. An interesting experiment this year was the offering of a special course in 'Missionary Methods and Materials for the Otterbein Guild.' Thirty-five girls were enrolled and found the course so helpful that they requested us to offer it again next year. The Churches of Miami Conference were well represented at the Otterbein Camp this year, having 72 young people from the Conference in attendance. Leadership Education should have an important place in the Christian Education program of the local church during the coming year. The Leadership training program has been so simplified that it is now possible for any pastor to conduct a class in his own church. A First Series Course may be given in 5 class sessions and 5 hours of outside study. Bible courses may be given at the mid-week service which will make a real contribution to the spiritual life of the church. For more intensive work, Second Series Courses may be offered in the local church or in community classes in cooperation with other churches.

"Recommendations: The following suggestions for Leadership education in the church for the coming year are offered with the hope that we may have a Leadership Training class in every church in Miami Conference this year. (1) Conduct a class this fall using the text, 'God's Will Be Done in the home.' (2) Cooperate with other churches in your community in a Standard Leadership Training School accredited by the International Council of Religious Education. (3) Hold monthly meetings of the officers and teachers of the Sunday School and feature these meetings with well-planned programs. (4) Buy two recent books on some phase of education, which may be circulated among the teachers and leaders of your church. (5) Have at least one delegate at the Bonebrake Leadership Training School and also one at the Otterbein Camp."

The Director of Adult Work gives the following report and recommendations: "Increasing attention is being given to materials and methods for Adult Christian Education. New books and pamphlets are coming from the press each year. The average churchman who reads in this field finds challenging suggestions for enriching and improving his own church program of Adult Education. Your Conference Director of Adult Work has attempted to promote the work in the Conference through letters, messenger articles, talks, and by making available some of the new literature. A two-day Adult Convention was held in the Fairview church last December. The United Christian Adult Movement moves on, and is now being directed by a special commission of which your Director is a member. The Commission will meet again at Lake Geneva next summer, though much work is being promoted in the interim. We will keep you informed. We are pleased to note that several new Brotherhoods and young adult and young married couples' classes have been formed during the year.

"Recommendations: (1) Using one of the many books on the home as a lesson course in Sunday School. (2) Secure two new adult booklets: 'Group Work with Adults Through the Church' and 'Adults in Action.' (3) The 'Learning of Life' program has been revised and a new booklet is available. (4) For emphasizing the theme 'God's Will be Done in the Home' the denominational booklet by that name has many fine suggestions."

The Director of Young People's Work reports as follows concerning his promotional activities: He spoke at twenty youth banquets; spoke or taught at twelve conventions and training schools; spoke at sixteen rallies on Christian Education; conducted thirty-one campfires; delivered seventy-three speeches to Youth assemblies in churches and clubs; promoted and conducted the one-day youth conventions in the Miami Conference; directed activities and taught in the Miami Conference leadership training school; worked with the denominational youth advisory board; and is now serving as president of the Ohio C. E. Union.

The Young People's Union of our conference recommends (1) that the following seven young people serve as district leaders and young people's Union officers under the direction of the conference director of youth work; Miss Thelma Gregory, President and West Dayton District leader; Mr.

Harry Sinks, East District; Miss Marjorie Canter, North District; Miss Sarah Aydelotte, Greenville District; Miss Marjorie Miller, Lewisburg District; Mr. Harry Pratt, Middletown District; Mr. Barton Fisher, Cincinnati District leader. (2) That the midyear youth rallies be held in each district, the dates to be settled by Conference District leader, and Conference Director of Young People's Work. The program is to be presented by the Conference Young People's Director. (3) That we follow the denominational and Conference program of Christian Education and that we promote the activities Contest. (4) That we hold a one-day convention the last Saturday in January in the interest of youth work. This conference to be planned and promoted by the Conference Director of Youth and the Youth Cabinet consisting of the seven district leaders of Youth work.

The Director of Children's work reports as follows: "I have Key-Workers for most all churches. Our major enterprise for the year was the convention which for the first time we held at a different time than at the Leadership Training School. We had seventy registrations. Others came for the evening session. It was held at the Olivet United Brethren Church. As a rule the people that attend come from small churches. Our program was very good. The purpose: 'To Study the inter-relation of the home and church in building Christian personality.' A very keen interest was shown by all that attended. We felt some good had been done. Another year we will know better how to plan. Our speakers: Miss Ruth Hunt, Miss Ida Koontz, Mrs. J. Gordon Howard, Dr. C. E. Ashcraft, Mrs. Cecil Edwards, Rev. W. N. Roberts, Mrs. E. H. Harmon, Mr. Robert Murry, and Dr. J. Gordon Howard, all of whom presented the work in a very splendid and helpful way.

"Recommendations: (1) All Children's Division Workers should make use of suggestions sent out by the General Board. (2) Each local Church separately or cooperatively have a Vacation Church School."

The Young People's Anniversary Day and the Children's Day offerings show the following results over a period of the last five years:

	1934	1935	1936	1937	1938
Young People's Anniversary Day	$494	$634	$591	$631	$595
Children's Day	444	629	687	634	700

We commend the "Support-by-the-Day-plan" of the General Board of Christian Education and urge a number of our churches and various individuals to enter into this plan in giving the General Board its much needed financial assistance.

Otterbein College offering came to $1130.00 as compared to $858.00 in 1937; $769.00 in 1936; $752.00 in 1935; and $531.00 in 1934.

The Conference Board of Christian Education has a budget of $500.00 for the year. It takes approximately this amount to provide for its work each year.

It has been our custom to submit a program of activities in Christian Education each year. Since our General Board of Christian Education now has a very adequate suggested program of Christian Education for the local church in printed form we are recommending that program to each church in the conference. We urge each pastor and each leader of Christian education in the local church to purchase this material and use it as resource material in the Christian Education program in their respective Churches. We commend the methods used in many of the churches in our conference wherein they use these materials as a basis of making out a complete program of Christian Education adapted to the needs of the local church.

We are greatly appreciative of each pastor and church for their cooperative spirit.

Respectfully submitted,
The Miami Conference Board of Christian Education
By Walter N. Roberts.

Report No. 30
REPORT OF POLICY COMMITTEE

We believe that a rich spiritual opportunity confronts the Church in this day of social and economic unrest, an opportunity to earnestly promote the interests of the Church of Christ at home and abroad. Therefore we, the ministers and laymen of Miami Conference, resolve to study carefully and prayerfully the following plans and program for the conference year.

God's Will Be Done in the Home

The book prepared by the Board of Administration on this theme is recommended for study in Church Night groups, or in a series of mid-week services, or in reading circles under capable direction, or in any other way in which its reading can be made effective in the Sunday School and Church. The book contains facts and information very valuable to young married people and to parents who are rearing children in these difficult days. We wish every church in our conference could place one of these books in every home connected with the parish.

Personal Evangelism and Revivals

A large part of the world has surrendered to a kind of sociological fatalism in which the individual is left without hope until the present social order is changed. Against this the Church must preach the good news of a triumphant spiritual victory for every individual. We need a resurgence of a moral and spiritual passion like that which has always characterized Christian evangelism at its best in our denomination. No other plan has proved to be better than the special revival period in which definite goals are set, the gospel preached, and souls redeemed at an altar of prayer.

Our Sunday Schools along with the Daily Bible Schools and Vacation Bible Schools offer a large field for evangelistic effort. We pledge ourselves to plan our church programs so that an adequate opportunity and appeal may be made to the children and youth of all these schools to accept Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

We recommend a yearly Roll Call in the church on some outstanding occasion like Communion Sunday, or on Christmas which this year falls on Sunday. Special cards should be used so that the names of new prospects may be secured in the enrollment.

That we make the Easter season a time of decision, conversion, renewed consecration and a time of ingathering of new members.

Christian Education

We recommend that we adopt as our conference program of Christian Education the program prepared by the General Board of Christian Education.

That every pastor present faithfully to his congregation the principles and practices of Christian Stewardship, and the use of the book, "The Stewardship Approach to Religious Experiences and Problems," in a careful and thorough study of the subject. Other valuable stewardship literature may be secured at very small cost at the office of the Board of Administration.

We believe that we dare not set aside our moral obligations to our sister conferences by inviting and receiving Seminary students who are already members of other conferences to full-time pastorates in our conference either on the occasion of their quitting their courses in the Seminary or their graduation. We feel a moral obligation not to so induce young men who come to the Seminary. We feel the Seminary students should not offer their credentials to Miami Conference until the completion of the Seminary Course.

Finances

The conference goal for benevolences is to pay the quota in full. We recommend that every church in the conference which is not now paying the benevolences in full be asked to set a goal showing a substantial increase and if at all possible to reach the goal of a full benevolence budget. A report of this item is to be made at the Fall Rallies.

Rather than recommend a financial plan for the churches, the committee wishes to give emphasis to the matter of organization. We believe that every local church should have a group of earnest, capable workers who will formulate a financial plan that will contact every church member at least once each quarter. This group of workers will be responsible for the Every Member Canvass, the securing of pledges, the distribution of envelopes and literature.

That a church bulletin be published at certain intervals during the year giving the entire church budget, the financial plan and the needs of the local church and other information that will help to place the responsibility of giving financial support to the church on every member of the congregation.

That we continue to observe the special days as designated by the General Conference program for promotional purposes, the offerings to be credited to the benevolence budget.

That we undertake to raise an amount equal to one-tenth of our benevolence budget for Bonebrake Seminary during the week of October 16-23.

That every church in the conference make an effort to secure in cash and pledges the full amount of the Preacher Pension Fund. That this item be made a special subject for consideration at the Fall Rallies. For the benefit of the churches and pastors that have not as yet planned to raise this fund that some plans be suggested at the Fall Rallies which might aid in completing the work in our conference and the realization of one-fifth of our quota in cash by November 30, 1938.

That all money raised shall be sent to our Conference Treasurer and proper credit shall be given by the treasurer to each church for money sent.

That we pledge ourselves as a Conference to follow the plan of organization and work as outlined by the Central Committee and to cooperate in every way with the leaders of the Preacher Pension plan in the denominational program.

That the literature about the Bonebrake Training School be sent out at least thirty days before the beginning of the school.

That the conference authorize the treasurer to close the books for the conference year on the Thursday after the last Sunday in August.

That regular monthly remittance of benevolence by every church to the conference treasurer be in his hands by Thursday noon following the last Sunday of the month.

That in the monthly benevolence reports in the Miami Messenger the church be rated according to the plan suggested in the Discipline on page 265.

That every charge employing a full time pastor make an earnest effort to pay $1200 and home as a minimum salary basis. We urge that every charge keep in mind the necessity of an adequate support for the pastor in his work and when a charge reaches a minimum salary of $1200 and a home, that the pastor in turn should give a maximum of his time to the work on the charge.

Rural Life Commission

That the Commission consist of five members. That the conference superintendent be the chairman. That the editor of the Miami Messenger be appointed as a member and these two shall select the other three members.

That the conference authorize the Commission to select a rural church as a project to be promoted by the conference through the Commission. That the details of working out the promotional plan be in the hands of the Commission.

That this Commission secure more scientific information about local communities and how to achieve more skillful technique in working successfully in rural churches and decadent sections of the conference. This would include the study of all interdenominational action in setting up large parishes with well trained leaders and workers.

That the Rural Life conferences for this year as to time, place, and program be left in the hands of this Commission.

Conference Rallies

That the Fall Rallies be given the earnest support of both the pastors and laymen. A large attendance adds inspiration to the program. We believe that the series of rallies to be held in October will be of great value to every church. Every pastor and many church officials should be present to receive helpful information and instruction and the blessings of Christian fellowship.

That we will cooperate with the other conferences of the Central Area in the holding of a great mid-year meeting in the city of Dayton. We appreciate the offer of the Dayton United Brethren Ministers' Association to act as host to the United Conference. We recommend that the conference be held in First Church and that the following committee be chosen: L. M. Hohn, J. P. Hendrix, F. L. Dennis; D. T. Gregory, advisor.

Reports and Records

That we resolve to give our Conference Superintendent hearty cooperation by keeping careful records of our work and by sending to him on time our quarterly and annual reports.

Cooperation

That we continue to give loyal support to the Summer Training School and Pastor's conference at Westerville and the Training School held at the Seminary.

That we pledge ourselves to support the cause of temperance with added vigor and enthusiasm and to cooperate with every organization that is hastening the day of our return to national prohibition. We regard the liquor business as a destructive enemy of the church and to a decent social order. We will follow the high standard set forth in the Discipline, and give the liquor interests no quarter. See Discipline, page 87—Section, III.

That we give cooperation to city, county and state Council of Churches, Councils of Religious Education, and all other regular organized methods of interdenominational fellowship in service to Christ and His Kingdom.

Selection of Place for the Annual Conference Session

That the invitations from churches to entertain the next annual conference session should be given on Tuesday afternoon and the names of the churches placed on the first conference ballot. If no church receives a majority of the votes cast, the two receiving the largest number of votes on the first ballot be placed on the second ballot and the one receiving the largest number of votes be selected.

Respectfully submitted,

U. and all kindred organizations that we may with clean hands, for the sake of society, the home and the church; that we may suppress the evil of the use of alcohol as a beverage, save our inheritance and build a battlement for our posterity to the Glory of God.

f. Trustee Fund $1000

Note: The above appropriations will require the 37% of the $34,000 benevolence budget receipts in order to carry our conference program.

Whereas, several of our churches have burdensome debts (some of them involving heavy loans from our General Boards) that must have our united effort toward definite payments, and

Whereas, the conference has sought and desires to aid several churches toward commendable payments on these debts, and

Whereas, the 37% of all budget receipts over and above $34,000 can be made available to our Conference Board of Trustees for helping these churches in their pressing obligations, therefore,

Be It Resolved, that we seek to realize a full benevolence budget of $48,000 during the ensuing year in order that our Conference Board of Trustees may have funds available to assist the churches as follows:

	Church to pay	Confer. to pay	Home Mis. Board to give	Total Payment	Home Mis. Board to receive
Beardshear	$ 500	$ 300		$ 800
Belmont	2000	500		2500

Oakwood	2200	1500	400	4100	3700
Willey Memorial	300	100		400
Xenia	500	300	150	950	800
	$10220	$4600	$1000	$15800	$5800

Note: The above payments are based on the full $48,000 benevolence budget, and are contingent on the $14,000 over and above the $34,000 from which the 37% allowed the conference is required for current conference work.

These payments, or any portion of them, are to be determined by the Conference Board of Trustees on a three-fold basis as follows: (1) Benevolence paid in full by these particular churches; (2) amount raised by the church to apply on the principal of the debt; and (3) that portion of benevolences raised by the conference above the $34,000 from which the entire 37% allowed is necessary for current expenses.

For example, if $5,000 is realized above the $34,000 or a total of $39,000 is raised, then the Board of Trustees can carry out a little more than one-third of the above schedule; and if $10,000 is realized above the $34,000 or a total of $44,000 is raised, then the Board of Trustees can carry out a bit more than two-thirds of the above schedule; and if a full budget is realized, the above schedule can be carried out in full.

15. That we pledge our hearty cooperation in the promotion of the Education Day offering for Otterbein College and in view of the pressing need we set $2400 as our conference goal for that offering. The conference Superintendent, the conference Director of Christian Education, Miami Conference members of the Otterbein College Board of Trustees shall be the committee to promote this offering.

JOE HENDRIX, Secretary.

Report No. 33

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF STEWARDSHIP

The work of Stewardship has been promoted the past year through the efforts of Dr. Gregory, Rev. Hohn, your Secretary, the Missionary Society, pastors, the columns of our papers and stewardship leaflets.

While the accomplishments have not been all that we desired, yet we are glad to report progress along the following lines. Our benevolences are about 15% ahead of last year and are summed up as follows: (1) Thirty-five churches paid in full on benevolences, (2) Sixty churches paid more this year than they paid last year, (3) There are eight second mile churches.

Quite a few of our churches have made improvements, others have reduced or paid off debts, some have installed new organs and 19 of the churches of our conference have underwritten their quota to the Ministerial Pension Endowment Fund either by personal pledges or by including in their church budget. We are also glad to report that many of our people are conducting some form of daily devotions, many through the use of the Upper Room. We sincerely hope that every Pastor will encourage his people to hold some form of daily devotions. We recommend for the coming year the "Upper Room" for daily devotions, the book "God's Will Be Done in the Home" compiled by J. Gordon Howard, for study in the home and prayer service.

We also recommend if possible that we emphasize stewardship each quarter by use of the leaflets with a message by pastor or layman in keeping with the theme presented in the leaflet. You will find the leaflet entitled "God's Way to Life through Stewardship" issued by the Board of Administration very interesting and helpful. You may secure such other leaflets as you may desire from the Layman Company of Chicago. We also ask that those who are not already tithers may be given a chance to test the blessing of tithing over a period of weeks by the use of the covenant plan.

The heart of the problem before us is to supplant the false notion that we own what we have, with the Christian's idea that we are only stewards of all and must give a strict account. "He that soweth sparingly shall also reap sparingly and he that soweth bountifully shall also reap bountifully."

O. A. STUTZ,
Secretary of Stewardship.

Report No. 34

As Conference Registrar, I submit the following recommendations:

I. That there be added to the list of Elders, the name of Edward Lee Niswonder. As he has had regular work in the conference for more than two years, I move that he be admitted to the classification, Itinerant Elder.

II. That the names of J. Assel, Calvin McNelly, J. H. Mayne and Dr. J. P. Landis be removed from the list of Retired Elders on account of death. That S. E. Rasey, S. F. Daugherty and Ivory Zimmerman be transferred from Itinerant Elders to Retired Elders.

III. That Robert Ryder be transferred from the First Year to the Second Year. That Wm. Messmer be transferred from Second to Third Year. That Edward Lee Niswonder be removed from the Third Year list to Itinerant Elder. That Earl Winkler be transferred from Fourth Year to the list of Quarterly Conference Licentiates.

IV. Quarterly Conference Licentiates: That the names of M. C. Potts of Union City, C. S. Zimmerman of Southern Hills, Clifford D. Stearns of Mt. Airy and Herbert L. Myers of Middletown be added to Quarterly Conference Licentiates.

V. That the names of J. H. Mayne, Calvin McNelly, J. P. Landis, D.D., and J. Assel be added to the Remembered List on account of death.

VI. These recommendations follow the approved reports of the Committee on Memoirs, Committee on Candidates for the Ministry, Committee on Conference Relations, Committee on Elders' Orders, and the Reading Course Faculty.

VII. I move that Licentiates serving charges in the conferences be given permission to administer the Sacraments.

Respectfully submitted,
G. W. DUCKWALL, Registrar.

Report No. 35

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, in the providence of God we have been permitted to meet in the one hundred and twenty-ninth session of Miami Conference, and, whereas all the sessions of this conference have been marked by genuine brotherly, Christian fellowship and spirituality.

Therefore be it resolved:

1. That we record our thanksgiving to our God, whose we are and whom we serve, for His never failing faithfulness in supplying our every need, and enabling us to share in the success of the year.

2. That we continue to hold our beloved Bishop Clippinger in the highest esteem and express to him our appreciation for his inspiring messages, his patience, forbearance, consideration, oneness with his fellowmen and fairness in dealing with them.

3. That to our energetic and forward looking Superintendent, L. M. Hohn, we pledge our support and cooperation in carrying out the Conference program.

4. That we continue to recognize and support the interdenominational organizations with which we have, heretofore, been affiliated.

5. That we condemn militarism in all its expressions—such as Japan's invasion of China, the U. S. big armament program, and compulsory military training in our schools and colleges.

6. That we join with the Lord's Day Alliance and the Anti-Saloon League for a better observance of the Sabbath and an unremitting effort against the liquor traffic.

7. That we give the Ministerial Pension Endowment the right-of-way over all special appeals, and set ourselves purposely to raise our quota in full by 1941.

8. That to the Press of the city we express our gratitude for their courtesy and cooperation in the splendid publicity they have given to our work.

9. That we deem it a high privilege to have the presence of so many of our general officers and denominational leaders, together with our guest speakers and record our appreciation, for this fellowship and their inspiring messages. We make special mention of Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton whose personality and addresses have made an invaluable contribution to this Conference.

10. That to the pastor Rev. Roy Miller and wife, and the members and friends of Euclid Avenue Church, we express our gratitude for their courtesy and hospitality in the homes and at the Church.

11. That we record our high appreciation for the inspiring music at all the sessions of the Conference, and for the able leadership of W. I. Underwood and Mrs. Funkhouser, and her daughter Catherine. The guest soloists, quartettes, and choruses were of high quality. Our faithful Conference Quartette inspired the audience each day with their harmony.
